VERY LITTLE FIGHTING ON THE WESTERN FRONT

Germans Massing Troops For Another Attempt To Get Through

Outside of the usual artillery actions things have been comparatively quiet along the battle front, all week.

The first ball game of the season was played the other day, at Purdyville. The town bunch was to have battled with Creek Valley, but the Homesteaders failed to produce a full quota. With the help of a few Villagers the game was staged, the winners winning by 16 to 7. Altho the Food Board has issued warnings against needless waste, the players chewed the 'fat' continuously.

The umpires, Gould and Vanhorn, came in for a lot of abuse from the players, but managed to reach town with whole skins. The grounds were a bit rough, the shell holes, and shrapnel making very brilliant playing almost out of the question but nevertheless and notwithstanding it was a great game.

Owing to the fact that four members of the Bank staff got storm-bound, in Coronation, the local Institution enjoyed another holiday, yesterday.

Altho George is now domiciled in the country he still finds time to journey into town for a game of tennis.

The amount subscribed to the Y. M. C. A., in Canada, is well over $3,000,000, the sum aimed at being $2,225,000. The amount raised here was $315.25, which does not include the country districts.

KIRRIEMUIR RED CROSS

Total articles—209.

A fire which started in the Farmers' Hotel, Entwistle, did over $40,000 damage before it was checked. The principal part of the business section was destroyed.

If final arrangements are completed in time, the Registration of all persons in Canada, over 16, will take place on Saturday, June 22nd.

Note and Comment

The recent sugar restrictions
passed by the Canada Food Board will have the effect of saving about 100,000 tons, approximately 25% of our normal consumption. These restrictions are rendered absolutely necessary by the shipping and rail transportation situation.

Food shipments, from the United States to the civilian populations of the Allies, were suspended for ten days to move three million bushel of grain for the Belgium Relief. It is reported that more than nine million people in Belgium and Northern France are practically without bread.

The shower on Wednesday and the snow on Thursday will help along the crops, but we could have done nicely without the heavy gale. A few inches of rainfall would be heartily welcomed.

Absolute knowledge have I none,

Heard a policeman on his beat,
Say to a laborer on the street,
That he had a letter just last week,
Written in the finest Greek,
From a Chinese coolie in Timbuctoo
Who said that the negroes in Cuba knew,
Of a colored man in a Texas town
Who got straight from a circus clown
That a man in the Klondike heard the news
From a gang of South American Jews,
About somebody in Borneo who knew
A man who claimed to know
Of a swell society female fake
Whose mother-in-law will undertake
To prove that her seventh husband's sister's niece
Had stated in a printed piece
That she had a son who had a friend
Who knew when the war was going to end.

BANISH PIMPLES AND ERUPTIONS

In the Spring Most People Need a Tonic Medicine

One of the most signs that the blood is out of order is the pimples, unsightly eruptions and eczema that come frequently with the change from winter to spring. These prove that the long indoor life of winter has had its effect upon the blood, and that a tonic medicine is needed to put it right. Indeed there are few people who do not need a tonic at this season. Bad blood does not merely show itself in disfiguring eruptions. To this same condition is due attacks of rheumatism and lumbago; the sharp stabbing pains of sciatica and neuralgia, poor appetite and a desire to avoid exertion. You cannot cure these troubles by the use of purgative medicines—you need a tonic, and a tonic only, and among all medicines there is none can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for their tonic, life-giving, nerve-restoring powers. Every dose of this medicine makes new, rich blood which drives out impurities, stimulates every organ and brings a feeling of new health and energy to weak, tired ailing men, women and children. If you are out of sorts give this medicine a trial and see how quickly it will restore the appetite, revive drooping spirits, and fill your veins with new, health-giving blood. You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

No Cattle Embargo

No Such Action Contemplated by U. S. Government on Canadian Shipments

Inquiry by the Canadian Press based on rumors from western Canada that the United States contemplates placing restrictions on the shipment of cattle from Canada into the United States, brought the reply from Washington that no such action was contemplated, at least for the present. Washington officials expressed some curiosity as to the origin of the report, and intimated that, so far as they knew, no embargo was in contemplation. The last list of articles placed under restriction, on April 1, made no reference to livestock.

Pencils From Japan

The Creation of a Lead Pencil Industry in Japan

An unthought-of result of the war has been the creation of a lead pencil industry in Japan. In 1911 Japan imported 65,000,000 pencils, most of which came from America and Germany. But with the opening of the European conflict German sources of supply were cut off and native manufacturers, who have been producing only in comparatively small quantities, seized their opportunity and made the most of it. In 1914 Japan exported over 9,000,000 pencils, and in 1916 the number had increased to 168,000,000. There is strong indication that many of the markets won by the Orientals will be held by them after the war, for they have the advantage of very cheap labor. Most of the lead which they use is imported from India and England.

Wise and experienced mothers know when their children are troubled with worms and lose no time in applying Miller's Worm Powders, the most effective vermicide that can be used. It is absolute in clearing the system of worms and restoring the healthy conditions without which there can be no comfort for the child, or hope of robust growth. It is the most trustworthy of worm exterminators.

Making the Pennies Reach

The little girl put six cents on the counter for a loaf of bread.
"Another cent, please," said the baker.
"Has it rose, then?" asked the little girl.
"Yes, bread went up this morning."
"Well, then," she replied, "give me one of yesterday's." — Guelph Mercury.

Indians Are In Big Food Drive

Fall in With Commissioner Graham's Plans Enthusiastically

Preparations for commencing operations on the home production farm, under the direction of the department of Indian affairs, are progressing rapidly. Six tractors have been shipped from Regina to nearby points where the farms will be maintained. Bunk houses and cook houses are now in process of construction at these points.

Indians at the Assiniboia reserve recently sent a delegation to wait upon Commissioner W. M. Graham, and before they left the city arrangements had been made by them for the purchase of three tractors. The Indians are financing the deal themselves and will make all their own arrangements for operating the machines.

Large areas of land are constantly being leased by the department for grazing and agricultural purposes in Alberta and Saskatchewan. Individuals and delegations are steadily coming in to confer with Commissioner Graham in regard to the leasing of these lands.

"Deed I'd like to, doc, but I ain't got 'nuff money to git a divorce." — Vancouver Province.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

How to loosen a tender corn or callus so it lifts out without pain

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corns will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezone, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without even irritating the surrounding tissue.

A small bottle of freezone obtained at any drug store will cost very little but will positively remove every hard or soft corn of callus from one's feet.

If your druggist hasn't stocked this new drug yet, tell him to get a small bottle of freezone for you from his wholesale drug house.

The Strength That Comes in the Fight With Back to the Wall

Trust the battle line of England, the Indomitable! Of all the peoples of history, none more than the English have shown the strength that comes in the fight with back to the wall. The last ditch is where England fights best and there she will fight best today if forced to it by the most tremendous military pressure the world has ever known. Thank God our boys are fighting at her side, even if it be but a few of them. May they carry to her the assurance of our faith and glory in her. May they sweep aside the ancient prejudices that have made us grudge England her fair mead of trust and honor. — Chicago Post.

To drive a tank, handle the guns, and sweep over the enemy trenches, takes strong nerves, good rich blood, a good stomach, liver and kidneys. BUSY BIDEFORD

To dance or not to dance, that is the question. We are glad to hear that there is a kindly spirit of broadmindedness abroad and the people who disapprove of dancing are not allowing their convictions to interfere with the pleasures of hearing good music and enjoying a hearty laugh at the merry antics of our little folks. On Red Cross night, dancing will follow supper, and we sincerely hope all the little ones and the old folks will retire, and that the young people who desire to "trip the light fantastic toe" will refrain from any unseemly attitudes. In the words of a critic of this town, "Tell 'em to cut out the 'ugging." Ladies, its up to you this time!

Many thanks to the lady in town for the recipe of the new cake called "Lazy Man's Cake." We tested it and pronounced it excellent. Anyone can have the recipe by paying 10 cents to the Red Cross. Apply to Miss Thomas at the Store.

Remember the Big Red Cross Night, Friday May 31st.

There was a general feeling of disappointment on Friday evening when it was found that the "News" had not arrived and that on Saturday only intensified the regret, showing that the Bideford live wires are all interested in their town and in the doings of the townsfolk. This is a healthy sign and is as it should be, for our little burg is to be a real progressive place. It is encouraging to work for folks who believe in their own home-town, who share Emerson's theories about life. This is what he says, "A philosophy which sees only the worst, believes neither in virtue nor in genius, which says it is all of no use, dispirits us. But if instead of these negatives, you give us affirmatives, if you tell us there is always life for living, that what man has done man may do, that there is always a way to every thing desirable, we are invigorated, the horizon opens, and we are full of good will to the cause of causes." Gentle reader, do you agree with him?

Dinkie-Town. Only last week we heard our city called a little dinkie town. We protest vigorously right here and now. Perhaps we are not all as highbrow as we might be, but to call us 'dinkie' is what Bideford will not stand for. The advertising columns will show that the merchants are fully alive to the fact that Bideford's on the Boom. We certainly thought the arrival of half a dozen new cars at McLeod's Garage was a sign not only of summer but of 'Biller', some folks here have made good and they are spending their money in the best and most sensible way, purchasing health for themselves and families by means of the Runabout. Oxen will soon be unknown here, the tractor has come to stay and nowhere can more up-to-date farming be seen than right in our own district. Some well-to-do farmers are erecting $5000 houses with modern conveniences which goes to prove that this is not such a bad location after all. Rome was built in a day, Sir Groucher, so what can you expect of little Bideford. Nil desperandum. Its up to the grouchers.

The C. P. R., realizing that we are booming, are building a new Depot. The old one was moved a distance east to make place for the new. To run down and see the train in is quite a pleasant part of the evening's program, especially when the gentlemen are so generous with the ice cream cones. The waiting-rooms of rural depots are usually most depressingly dingy places. It would cost the railways but a little to cover the walls with photographs of the beauties of the Coast or Rockies, and in this way educate us to a desire to see something more of the world than our own Busy B. It would be a fine business policy to tempt us, by means of pictures, to save all our dimes and nickles from the needless chewing gum and luxuries, but quite unnecessary candies, and place them aside for the purpose of spending on a good trip, for nothing is so educative as travel.

Mother's Day was remembered in our little town, who dares to call us dinky, indeed, when the maiden of Bideford called on the maters and presented them with beautiful pink and white tulips in honor of Mother's Day. It was a grateful thing to do, one of those little acts of loving-kindness which mean so much to the recipients. 'Tis more blessed to give than to receive, and we trust the gratitude shown by the mothers at being remembered unexpectedly was worth all the trouble of procuring the flowers.

Mrs. Stinson received a sudden call from the old folks at home and left for Manitoba on Friday to see her aged mother, who is dangerously ill. We shall all miss Mrs. Stinson during her absence and our sympathies are with her on her sorrowful errand. We wish her a safe return.

Let's Boost Busy Bideford!

Mrs. Proctor and Dolly spent the weekend in Kerrobert, a trip for health and business, (personal and on behalf of the W. I. of which Mrs. Proctor is Vice-Pres.) We trust the trip will be beneficial to Miss Dolly who has not been looking her usual bright self lately, and in view of the coming Musical Evening we hope she will quickly regain health and strength. She is a young lady of decided histrionic talent, illustrating the laws of heredity in taking after her parents, who have had the unique opportunity of combining native talent with artistic training. She is always ready and willing to place her time and talents at the service of any good cause and Bideford is fortunate in having an artist, who the young, has acquired a stage presence that does her credit, and has attained an efficiency that is the result of careful study and persevering effort. A bright future is before her.

We call attention to the fact that Mr. Proctor is busy getting ready to open an up-to-date Grocery and Fruit Store.

Our Column. We hear that our little notes travel far and wide, that they are read away over in Francoeur's L. Robinson, in Calgary hospital by A. Perrell, by the Robinsons in Saskatoon, and down east by Miss Milliken. These are just a few in-

May 31st. Folks are coming from far and near to hear the Musical & Dramatic Recital on May 31st, and the programs are selling fast. We hear of the kind co-operation of our Kirrie friends, others are coming from Compoer and Monitor. The concert is really a 'grows-up' one, but one or two numbers will be given by the children. By special request there will be a Scottish recital in the broadest Harry Lauder style, what it's about we dinna care tae tell, ye mairg come an' see fer yerseel. It'll cost ye just wan house, awfu' cheap, a' for the Red Cross.

The next meeting of the Institute will be held at Mrs. Rexer's on May 18th. A good attendance requested.

Certain young ladies should remember the dignity of girlhood is worth preserving," said the Bideford Mrs. Grundy, and the Newswoman said "Hear Hear."

Glad to say our little friend Abe Perrell is progressing nicely, in Calgary hospital, and will soon be home again.

"Well," he said by and by, "my opinion is that Daly thinks Lawrence is here, so to speak, within his reach, which must be a strong encouragement. If he learns the truth, he'll no doubt, go back to Canada and get on his track. I'd like to set him searching for Lawrence up and down Great Britain. There would be something amusing in his wasting his time and money, but at present I don't see how it could be done. However, we have until tomorrow to think of a plan."

Featherstone left him soon afterwards and he stayed in the library until dinner, which he found a melancholy function. It was necessary to appear undisturbed while the servants were about, and he envied his friend's fine control. These people had courage and when they talked carelessly about things of no importance he did his best to play up. Still, although they sometimes laughed their amusement sounded forced, there was a curious feeling of tension, and he thought Mrs. Featherstone once or twice showed signs of strain.

When the meal was over he made an excuse for leaving them alone, but some time afterwards Alice came into the hall, where he sat quietly thinking. She was calm, but he saw she had heard about the threatened danger. He drew out his chair and she beckoned him to sit down.

"My father has told me about the letter, and I understand you know," she said.

"I wish I knew what ought to be done! It's an awkward matter. To tell the truth, it bothers me."

Alice sat down, leaning her face from the fire with her hand.

"You mean you feel you ought to put it right?"

"Something of the kind," said Foster, forcing a smile. In a sense, of course, that's presumptuous; but then, you see, in many ways, I'm in your brother's debt."

"You like to pay your debts," Alice remarked, fixing a level glance on him.

"When I can; but that's not all. I'm not in Lawrence's debt alone," Foster answered with some diffidence. "I came over here, a stranger, ignorant of your ideas and customs, and you made me welcome. Of course, if I had jarred you, you wouldn't have let me know; but there are different degrees of hospitality."

Alice smiled. "You needn't labor your excuses for wanting to help us, and you are not a stranger now. You must have understood this when my father showed you the letter."

"Thank you," Foster replied with feeling, and was silent for the next few moments. Alice, who was proud and reserved, trusted him, and he

CANADA'S PRIDE

CANADIANS have good reason to be proud of the position Canada holds in the world today. This pride is justified by the activities of her people, by her unlimited natural resources, by her splendid institutions, and particularly by her Industries.

Facts about the immensity of some Canadian industries would astonish most people.

These industries, when viewed in the light of comparison with other countries, are simply tremendous.

The growth of any industry is limited to the number of people it can serve, and that is a fact not often properly appreciated when Canadian industries are compared to similar enterprises in, say, the United States.

For example: the population of the United States exceeds 100,000,000. Opportunity for industries there is almost unlimited. In comparison, Canada with its seven million population is a small country—yet in spite of this comparatively small population, Canada possesses several industries which in actual size rank among the biggest in the world.

In shoemaking, one Canadian concern has developed a volume of business and a service to the Canadian people which is not equalled by another shoe manufacturer anywhere in the world. This concern, if located in the United States, would rank as one of the twelve largest out of some two thousand shoe manufacturers there.

While the sales of the largest shoe manufacturer in the United States—selling to the American people—do not exceed twenty-five cents per capita per year, the sales of Ames Holden McCready to the Canadian people last year were approximately eighty cents per capita.

In a comparative sense, therefore, this Canadian concern is greater than the foremost American shoe manufacturer in the United States.

Thus Ames Holden McCready truly merit the distinction of their title "Shoemakers to the Canadian Nation."

Just imagine for a moment the enormous work of supplying a large portion of Canada's 7,000,000 people with its boots and shoes:

—it requires—huge up-to-date factories equipped with the most modern machinery able to turn out 8,000 pairs of shoes a day.

—it requires—a variety of nearly 800 different styles to meet the requirements of all classes of people, for different grades, shapes and kinds of shoes.

—it requires—the maintenance of six large distributing branches in principal cities from coast to coast, and in these are carried over a million dollars worth of stock, ready for quick delivery to retailers.

—it requires—sixty travelling salesmen to call on the retail trade, because out of approximately 10,000 retail dealers who sell shoes in Canada, more than 5,000 handle A.H.M. Shoes.

—it requires—many other details of organization and equipment, but this brief outline will give you some slight idea of the part that this great shoe concern is playing in the business of supplying footwear to the Canadian people.

You will be interested in these facts, because the next time you buy footwear bearing the A.H.M. Brand, you will know that they are the product of a large and efficient organization making shoes which will in every case give you the greatest value for your money.

AMES HOLDEN MCCREADY

"Shoemakers to the Nation"

must somehow justify her confidence. He had a vague plan in his mind, but it needed working out. "But we must be practical," she resumed. "Can you help? You must see that there is nobody else who can."

Foster made a sign of agreement, for it was plain that Featherstone could not tell his friends about his trouble.

"I begin to think I might; but although I haven't quite made my plans yet, I see some danger. Would you take a risk for your brother's sake?"

The girl's eyes sparkled, and he saw that she had Lawrence's reckless courage. He had heard his partner laugh when they faced starvation on the frozen trail.

"I would take any risk to save him or punish the blackmailer."

"Very well. I rather think your father will leave things to me, and I have a half-formed plan. There ought to be some humor in the plot, if I can work it out. Daly's plainly convinced that your brother's here, and I don't see why he shouldn't be encouraged to stick to his opinion. In fact, the longer he looks for Lawrence, the more amusing the thing will get. Of course, he may turn spiteful when he finds he has been tricked, but he, no doubt, means to all the harm he can already. However, you must give me until tomorrow."

Alice got up and when he rose said quietly, but with something in her voice that thrilled him: "I think you like my mother and she knows I meant to talk to you. Lawrence is very dear to her and if he were dragged back into disgrace, now when we thought it was all forgotten and I am not sure she could bear the shock. There is nobody else who could help us and we trust to you."

"Then I must try to deserve it," Foster answered with a bow. "But what about your old servant, John? Have you much confidence in him?"

The girl's tense face relaxed. "In a sense, John is one of the family, but if you want his help, you must use some tact and not expect western frankness. He is remarkably discreet."

Foster opened the door for her, and then went to the gun room, where he found John, who had driven him from the station when he arrived, pouring out some Kangaroo oil. Sitting down carelessly, he lighted a cigarette.

"I understand you were rather fond of my partner, Lawrence Featherstone," he remarked.

"If I may say so, sir, I was. A very likeable young gentleman."

"I expect you know he got into trouble."

John looked pained at his bluntness. "I heard something about it, sir. Perhaps Mr. Lawrence was a little wild. It sometimes happens in very good families."

"Just so," said Foster. "Would you be surprised to hear he hadn't got out of that trouble yet?"

"Not surprised, exactly. I was afraid of something like it, sir."

Foster knew this was as much as he would admit, but felt that he could trust the man.

"Very well. My partner's in some danger, and with Mr. Featherstone's permission, I must try to see him through, but may want your help. I suppose you're willing?"

"Yes, sir. If it's for Mr. Lawrence, you can take it that I am."

"You can drive an automobile pretty well?"

"Not like a professional, sir, but now we don't keep a chauffeur I often drive to the station."

"That's satisfactory. I may want the car tomorrow evening, but nobody else must know about this."

"Very good, sir," said John. "When you're ready you can give me your instructions; they'll go no further."

Then he dipped a rag in the oil and began to rub a gun, and Foster went out, feeling satisfied. It was plain that he could rely upon the old fellow, who he thought was unflinchingly loyal to the Featherstones. After all, it was something to have the respect and affection of one's servant.
